

Dr. Pickarane for information

To : Group Leaders

Christmas Celebrations

The dangers of office and laboratory parties are well known and I have been asked to remind Group Leaders of their responsibilities for keeping Christmas celebrations under careful control. In particular, drinking should be symbolic rather than demonstrative.

Wherever possible parties on the site should be restricted to the Friday before Christmas.

J. M. Valentine
Deputy Secretary

12th December, 1962.